Dear Mr. Lange,

Many thanks for your appreciated letter.

I was just in L.A. When I am there ~~xx~~ I go at such a pace it is not possible for me to visit, much as I'd like. Also, I never know when I leave home what my phone number will be. I usually stay with friends, and they decide among themselves with whom.

Last week, when I was there, there were two nights I did not get into bed at all and all the others I had time to sleep but four hours or less. I still continue my work, in addition to the appearances, and I spend every available moment interviewing witnesses.

Sincerely,

Harold Weisberg
